

Fertility 2018

4-6 January 2018 • ACC Liverpool

CALL FOR PAPERS

Fertility 2018 is the 11th Joint Conference of the Association of Clinical Embryologists, British Fertility Society and the Society for Reproduction & Fertility. The organising Societies are delighted that the 2018 conference is returning to the ACC in the city of Liverpool.

As one of the largest UK events focussing on fertility and reproductive medicine, the conference programme offers the latest scientific and clinical developments and updates in fertility, sexual health and reproductive biology. Accompanied by a large commercial exhibition, nearly 200 poster presentations and excellent networking opportunities, Fertility 2018 will be attended by over 700 experts working in fertility and reproductive medicine.

Presenting your work at Fertility 2018 is an excellent opportunity to showcase new research and innovations, stimulate debate and enhance career prospects.

Submissions are invited for both short oral presentations and poster presentations.

There are oral paper prizes for ACE pre-reg, SRF PhD Students, BFS Young Clinician, Scientist and Nurse submissions along with poster prizes for each society and a joint People's poster prize.

Don't miss the opportunity to be part of this exciting event!

Submission deadline:
Midday Monday 11 September 2017
